

Delieving that pleasant memories are the cream of one's meditations, and believing that school-day reminiscences are among one's most pleasant memories, we the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and thirty one offer this Benedictus in order that our teachers, parents and classmates, as well as ourselves, may share and enjoy that cream

DEDICATION!

ONCE more by his careful planning and supervision of finances he has made possible the publication of this annual. It is to Edward E. Hylton, therefore, that we dedicate the Benedictus of 1931.

Class Song

Melody-"Poor Butterfly"

There's a Senior class going to leave old Garfield Hi
They are waiting for the dawn of a setting sun
The class of '31
That's as good a class as a class can be
Seeking life's adventure on a different sea
Class of '31
We've met within these four walls here, every day
And now we're free in life to have our way and say
To come was not a task
But to go is hard
There's nothing more to ask

Cho -

Here's to the school; that we leave behind us, Here's to the mates, who will take our place May they fill ours to a "T" We know that they'll always be as loyal as we Have always been.

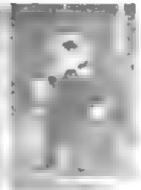

O Gardeld High, though we part so soon
We'll sure return before many moons
And may it come to pass
We'll remain with you 'til the last
For a fond farewell
From the Senior class.

Diary for 1930-31

September 3 What does this crowd mean? It must be the first day of school.

September 2-23 A confusion of revolutionizing programs, bewildered looking freshies, and the old Blu Tri girls looking for and finding their little sisters.

September 24. There are quite a few more smiling faces today. Why? Miss Payton's back!

September 25—Just a lot of excitement for nothing. We were all setting our hearts on a good peppy pep session when we heard there was going to be an assembly, and all we did was to be assigned our sests.

September 26 -Hurrah for Garfield' We beat Brazil in our first football game this year with a score of 18-6.

September 27-"Can you pay your dues or fees today?"

October 2. First Benny Staff meeting. The seniors had better begin to dig up two dollars.

October 3-Another victory! Who said Sullivan could lick us?

October 6- Bine Tri Initiation

October 7-Senior election.

October 8-- Extra, Extra! We had a real-honest-to-goodness pep assembly

October 11- Carfield-Tech game, 0-0. (Our favor).

October 13 Bit. Tri Indian fruit. The assets were good food, a warm fire, and a rollicking good time, and the liabilities were three flat tires on Miss Reitzel's car and $26.00 worth of shoe leather worn out by girls and teachers on the walk home.

October 15-It won't be long now! Just one more day of drudgery and we'll be free for four days while our dear teachers go to the convention at Indianapolis.

October 17-26-"A good time was had by all." (?)

October 24. The students are beginning to work hard at all times and pay compliments to their teachers. Even a stranger would know that tomorrow is a redetter day

October 22-The depression is worn off for another six weeks

October 24 Homecoming A mixture of dignified seniors and a crowd of proud parents.

October 25.—We are now another game to the good. Poor Bicknell was defeated by a score of 25-0.

November 3- The chief issues of the day are the senior play, "Nothing But the Truth," and Benny drive for seniors.

November 4--Will someone please tell the Seniors what to buy for their class insignle?

November 6-The first evening of the play was a howling success.

November 7 Two sad things happened today—the required number of Sentors did not subscribe for the Benny and Garwood Tucker had his neck broken during practice.

Diary for 1930-31

November 10-Assembly! Several students are angry because they bought tickets for the concert tomorrow so they could get out of school, and then found that they were to be out anyway.

November 11 Our boys suffered their first defeat tonight when Clinton conquered them with a score of 25-0.

November 12-Prepare to rejoice. The last required Benny subscription was made today

November 13-Am I dreaming? YOU'LL think so when you hear we had another assembly today. That makes two in one week.

November 26-Wuxtry' We had an assembly this morning and a double period pep session this afternoon. Now for a 4-day rest.

December 1 All the students are looking happy because the turkey gobbled in our favor on Thanksgiving Day

December 3-Another red-letter day Besides report cards, the football hoys were awarded chocolate candy in the assembly today

December 5 -The Blu Tri council members, the advisors, and the football boys look tired today, so "there must have been a hot time at Garfield last night at the football banquet.

December 9 Senior meeting. The insignia chosen for election were hats and purses for girts, and belts for the boys.

December 12-The Garfield Minstrel and Revue.

December 15-A beautiful Christmas play was presented in Blu Tri.

December 17 Although most of the cast of the Business Club play have been chosen, several angels are still seeded. Wonder where they'll be found?

December 19—Christman assembly this morning. The Seniors were excused from clusses for their party

December 29-Now since Christmas vacation is over, the most common expression in, Wonder if we're going to get out Friday as well as Thursday for New Years?"

December 30-Today we've settled down to study a little because we get promoted (?) in less than three weeks.

January 5-Big Tri Party

January 7 -Commencement time is near for January Seniors. That explains the tape--measure-index girls.

January 3-January Prom.

January 15-Room 16 won the Banking Contest which ended last week

January 14-Hurrah for Hi-Y and the book exchange

January 15-Joint commencement with Wiley and Tech.

Japuary 16-A, B, C, D, F.

January 20-The halls are again decorated with freshies.

Diary for 1930-31

January 21 Rank coshier party and institution of smile week.

February 4-Miss Reitzel, Miss Duncan, and Mr Hytton have been chosen as advisors of the bank cashlers.

February 6-Plans are under way for the Home Ec Paculty Tea.

February 6-Great news-almost. We were all excited about an assembly but learned it was only a sest-assigning activity

February 7 Big Benny trial. The case was continued for two weeks while the supreme court, the underclassmen, are voting by buying a Benny February 9-Blu Tri Hobo Party. Bread line 'n everything.

February 11-Benny Drive Contest between rooms starts today.

February 12-The Senior boys have voted on purple caps with white numerals, and the girls have chosen white tams with purple numerals.

February 20-Second Revue and Minstrel.

February 21-Rooms 9 and 27 take the chocolates. Also room 8.

February 24-Cups and gowns defeated'

March 4-Hi-Y formal initiation. Open for spectators.

March 6-Hi-Y-Blue Tri dinner at Maple Avenue Christian Church

March 11 The front campus is decorated with Mr Ewers, his camera, benches, students sitting on them, and the rest of the school looking on.

March 12-Rumors of a faculty play. Hope they're true.

March 17- The sentors have decided to graduate at the Shrine Temple. The girls will wear white informal afternoon dresses.

March 24— His Tri Basketball banquet. We hear that the boys asked to help with the dishes. (Note: There were cookles in the kitches.)

March 26-Get ready to laugh at the teachers tomorrow night

March 26-Faculty Play. 'Nuff said.

March 27 Hurray! Spring vacation.

April 6-11 Girls' Week

May 21 "Easy Pickins." a comedy, was presented by G. A. A.

Blue Triangle

GARFIELD Blue Triangle started out on this year's program with a 'Big Slater Week." The purpose of this was to create a closer link of friendship between the new and old girls in school

Several service projects have been successfully carried on by the Service Committee, under the leadership of Helma Holdsway, assisted by Miss Lora Lawis.

The Ways and Means Committee has demonstrated its ability to make money in various ways. They formulated a budget which was followed by various committees.

The Social Committee's dances, blkes, and parties have been equally successful,

Under the guidance of Miss Dawson, the Body, Mind and Spirit Committee has acquitted [tas]f admirably during the past year in carrying on devotions.

The programs, directed by Marjorie Worthington, were enjoyed immensely by the Club.

The first seriester a Freshmon Clab was conducted by Helon Lackey, our Vice President.

The officers for the past year were as follows

THE 1931 Renny' staff was chosen by the spansor, Miss Payton Robert Asbury and Richard Stock represented the staff at the Ninth Annual Convention of the Indiana High School Press Association. As the staff pushed the Senior drive for subcariptions, the necessary 95% was secured with little difficulty. A contest was held in connection with the under classmen drive, the prizes being awarded to Miss Froch's English class, the Cicero class and the girle' study hall.

The underclassmen were allowed to subscribe after the contest was over, and the number of subscriptions continued well past four hundred.

Contracts were signed for printing, engraving, and photographing. Work had begun. The staff early showed its desire for individuality by its selection of a distinctive cover. This trait was also shown in the selection of panels, while the division pages also present something new in year-book art-work. The advertising campaign started early in the new year, but the staff soon found they were bucking up against hard times. The faculty came to the rescue with "The Dutch Detective" which had an exceptionally large advance sale of tickets.

The staff dedicated its spring reaction to "Benny" work, mounting snaps, getting ads, and building the "dummy". The success of this annual may be accounted for in the assistance given us by our advisors, advertisers, faculty, and fellow classmates. We take this opportunity of thanking those who have cooperated with us in publishing this annual.

THIS year the Royal Purple staff was chosen by a faculty and student committee. A new and much needed position that of copy editor, was added to the usual places on the staff. The change was made by the two advisors.

Robert Bond and ione Whitesell represented the sinff at the annual convention of the State Press Association held at Franklin.

The paper has not escaped the effects of the financial depression of the country and the staff spent several worried weeks over the lack of ads until it secured Marian Rittle as advertising manager

Except for a few mistakes, the paper has been successfully edited during the year Topics covering a wide range of ambjects have been published in the paper, and all the activities of the different organizations have been supported well. This year's staff has endeavored to edit a paper that the students would appreciate reading. It has been no small job, but we feel that it has been a successful year. There has been a striking cooperation between the staff and our advisors, which probably accounts for the success of the paper.

THE Garaeld Players have just completed one of their most successful seasons.

Although the Players lost many valuable members at the mid-year, including the President, it gained several talented players and the leadership of he club passed into the capable hands of Clifford Shandy

The season of plays included such presentations as

The Flattering Word My Double and How He Outdid Me

The Boys' Play Sir De Malitroit's Door

Tea and Tonst The Rehenral
The Bungalow Bride The Substitute
Rip Van Winkle The Necklace
The Siege of Berlin Good Medicine

The Christmas Play was the outstanding Production. "Dust of the Road" was presented with the following players Maxine Moss, Charles Kline, Clifford Shandy, Jos Walker.

Our membership includes

Clifford Shandy	Woodrow Millar	Kathleen Newton
Jack Norwood	Charles Kilne	Elizabeth Norwood
Kenneth Payne	Maurice Burnett	Marjorle Worthington
Art McAlpina	Melvin Riggs	Irma Anderson
John Smith	Drusilla Padgett	Bather Burgan

THE senter class play, "Nothing But the Truth," was presented in the Garfield auditorium Thursday and Priday, November 6 and 7,

"Nothing But the Truth" owes its title to the belief of its hero, Bob Bennett, that he can tell nothing but the truth for twenty-tour hours. In fact he so firmly believes this that he bets the ten thousand dellars of charity money that Gwendelyn Relaton, his sweetheart, has entrusted to him. The bet is made with E. M. Raiston, a broker, who at the particular time is trying to "unload" some worthless stock. Then the trouble sets in. He is asked about the stability of Raiston's stock. Mrs. Raiston seeks the explanation of the presence of two flappers in her husband's office. Many similar embarrassing questions complicate matters for Bob, but he finally wine the bet, as well as the girk.

Although the part of Bob was the leading role, the other members of the cast did such spiendid acting that the presentation was praised highly, both by faculty and student body. Praise certainly goes to Miss Ferguson for the splandid teamwork of the cast, even in the minutest detail.

Directed by J. J. Machling.

N Thursday, March 26, the Garneld Faculty presented what might be termed its dramatic musterpiece judging from the enjoyment evidenced by the audience.

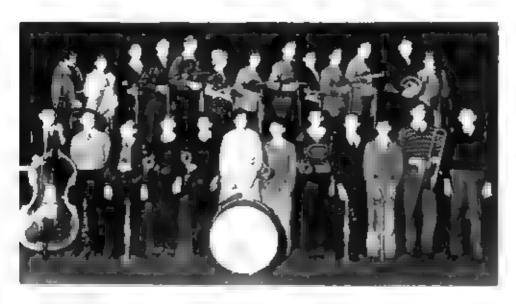

The farcs. The Dutch Detective," centers about the activities of one Otto Schmultz, who a trying to catch two escaped lunactics and an eloping couple while trying to win the heart of Katrina Kraut-all of which places considerable strain upon his correspondence-school diploma. At the opening of the play, Jaho Grabb is anxiously awaiting the arrival of his "lalla-paloosa," Araminta Sourdrope, whom he has not seen for eighteen years, but sight of her cools his enthusiasm considerably, and to think hat she had come all the way from Seetyville- However, she meets a childhood sweetheart. Major Howler, and he falls for Ambrosia McCarty. At the final cortain we find that no one escapes Cupid's darts.

Miss Parker's eyes, Miss Ferguson's brogue, and Mr Conover's costume are just a few exemples of what is meant when we say that no stone was left unturned in order to provide the money's worth in entertainment

IN MEMORIAM

I 111's span is short. We can never be certain what lies before us an tomorron's horizon, that summy skies of happiness today are easily transformed into our clouds of sorrow tomorrow. A higher hand than contait's controls our destinies, and decrees that we are not to see but the inture. Instead we must understo the Joys and serrows of the internal we are finally received into the sourchary of eternal happiness.

Draft in Reelf seems a terrible being, statebing our beloved from as, and is a respecter of no person. With the same sweep it move from the aged and fabria, the strong and bardy, and the yeath who are pre-puring themselves to make the history of a nation.

How sickingly was this point brought to us a few short weeks ago when we saw and mourned the passing of one of our most popular bays! This fellow was probably one of the greatest wibites that our school has ever turned out. He was not only an athlete, but a stadent as well, besides being one of the best liked boys on the campus. His winning smile and line quabites made him hundreds of friends both on the athletic field and in every day life. Les, that winning smile was always present, Even when the purple and white bunners were drooping and the day seemed took, this hoy, a typical example of that "spirit of 7-6," was out there fielding, planning, and strating to wan, that smile always present and sportsmanship his appearance throught.

His death was a terrible shock to every teacher and student with whom he had been associated during his bigh school career. Though Bruno Beckish is gone from the runks of the Purple Fagles, we feel that his indominable spirit will always be leading his featurantees on to further conquests, and though he cannot be present in person, his message will be:

"Although the odds be great or small, Let furfield High win over all; While her loyal sons are marchine Onward to victory."

GARFIELD 18: BRAZIL 0

O'N September 26, the first game of the year was prayed with Brazilian School, being held at 8.00 P. M. at the statum. A great crowd of backers for both schools turned out to witness the Engles' victory. Eder, Campbell, and Don Donnelly each scored 6 points to make the final score 18 to Brazil's nothing. However, it was the functioning of the team as a whole which enabled Garfield to carry on to such a victory.

Garfield 19-Wiley 7

N November 27 Thankegiving Day, the annual battle between Garfield and Wiley, was held. The Engles, smarting under their Princeton defeat, were eager to have a chance at the highly-talked-of Wiley Red Streaks machine which had gone undefented throughout its season. The day was one of the coldest of the entire winter, and the ground was outliedy covered with snow. This necessitated a rushing out of heaters at intervals, instead of the customory water backet. With Kirchner, Eagle inckle and Ed Donnelly, captain and center of the Eagles, taking out more than their share of Red Streak linemen on each play, more than the usual number of Garaeld Inches were able to block for the backfield. During the greater part of the gains. this made it appear that the entire Garfield eleven was rushing down the field on each play Don Donnelly having been taken from his position at end, and placed at halfback, was one of the outstanding stars of the game. Both Becklab and Donnelly plunged, kicked, and passed their way to distinction. Beckish also garnered extra honors by making all of Gardeld's 19 points. A long pass, Henderson to Cottom, produced Wiley's only touchdown. The whole Garfield squad probably played as great a game as any Engle team has over done, eleven players fighting and working hard together at all times.

Girls Athletic Association

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION has had a very successful year under the direction of Miss Lelsey and through the splendid cooperation of the officers and different committees. We welcomed many new members into the club, and they have shown themselves to be eager to plunge into the work as well as the fun. Hockey, swimming, voiley bail, basketball, baseball, and track were the chief sports of the year. Several parties were given, both by the new girls and old, and by the club as a whole. The crowning event was the G. A. A. play "Easy Pickens," given May 1, 1931. I am sure we all agree that it was a great success.

The officers for the year 1930-31 were
